Attorney-at-law, Real Estate Department

Jak mogę pomóc

In my professional practice, I am focused on the matters of civil and administrative law in respect of real estate and construction projects. I take part in due diligence of real estate, I draw up legal opinions and contracts.

Experience

I support the clients of the Real Estate Department of RK Legal in the following matters:

Assistance in the construction process

I support companies in handling construction projects, from the stage of agreement with an architect and contractor's agreement, through project execution, up to contract settlement with the project participants. I draw up and negotiate terms and conditions of agreements with the client's contractors.

Litigation

I have experience in court proceedings regarding civil and administration cases. I have reached several settlements: at court, out of court and before the mediator.

Real estate due diligence

I have participated in developing of several due diligence analyses of future investment projects. The recommendations of our team have led to streamlining of the investment process at the execution stage and allowed the clients to avoid significant legal risks related with the project.

Advertising sector

Along with my team, I have developed a comprehensive and effective strategy of action for international advertising tycoon for the purposes of several hundred administrative proceedings related with location of advertising media in large Polish cities. I have successfully represented the client before administrative courts and authorities.
